WM. E. PELL, Editor.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

ELECTION THURSDAY NOV. 9th.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.--Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

The Tables Turned!

"ELECT HOLDEN AND GO IN, OR ELECT WORTH AND STAY OUT."

THE PLOT EXPOSED!

Rally Worth Men! RALLY!!

The Standard and the Holden presses of the State have tried to humbug the people long enough. Truth is mighty and will prevail.—Men of sense and respectability in the State have lent themselves unwittingly to the humbug, by admitting that because Gov. Holden was chosen by President Johnson for Provisional Governor, therefore he prefers him for civil Governor.—They have given effect and force to the humbug, by listening to the paltry balderdash, that the North is in favor of Holden--that it will be better for the State at Washington and at the North, for Holden to be elected. Never was there a more unfounded--a more groundless idea.

Can the people of North Carolina suppose that Gov. Holden stands better abroad than at home? Can they suppose that when the people North find out how Gov. Holden stood at home, that they will still hold to him? Do our people think the Congress and the President are now ignorant of Gov. Holden's true record? Do they not know he has been the most vaccillating, inconstent and unreliable politician in the South?—Do they not know that Jonathan Worth has been the most consistent, uniform and unwavering man in his political course in the State? Rest assured the Congress and the President and the people North, know Mr. Worth and they know Mr. Holden.

The assertion that President Johnson prefers Mr. Holden for civil Governor is untrue, if we can believe reliable gentlemen at Washington in high office.

On the 28th ult., we published the following extract from a letter from a gentleman of high character in Washington:

"Let every thing be done to enlighten the people of North Carolina. Holden is trying to produce the impression that the President is for him. It is not true."

Again, on the 30th ult., we stated:

"We are authorized to state upon authority little less than that coming directly from the President himself, that "the Government will not in any way interfere with the people of North Carolina, in respect to the choice for Governor. It is a matter entirely for the people, and any pretence that this or that candidate is to be elected on the demands of the Government is without any authority whatever."

Let the people consider these extracts and the high source from whence they come. Let the press of the State instruct the people on this subject fully.

Again, John L. Pennington of the Progress, it is known, is a strong Holden man. He has tried to keep up this idea; but suddenly the Progress shuts up about the election. Finding it is doing Gov. Holden more harm than good, Pennington has gone to Washington to try what he can do for his friend Holden there.

We warn the people, if telegrams come out from Washington while Pennington is there, they will understand them. We doubt if there are 500 people in North Carolina who would believe any telegram John L. Pennington would make in regard to the election.

In his paper, the Progress, writing from Washington about five hours after he got there—a stranger in the city, see what he says:

"The defeat of Gov. Holden, should such an unfortunate event occur, will cause not only surprise but misgivings as to the future among the best friends of the State here. All express great surprise, including the President, that Gov. Holden should have opposition, for they deplore the division among our people which they know must have caused it."

Now who can believe a word of this? A stranger in Washington, in five hours writing home the opinions of the President and leading men connected with the Government! The thing is incredible, and it only shows up Mr. Pennington in his true character.

Now look on this side of the picture. A letter from a gentleman at Washington City, who enjoys the confidence of the President and cabinet, writing on the 29th ult., says:

"In the last letter I gave you assurance that the Government did not demand, or require Holden's election. Not only so, but I believe the election of Gov. Holden would prove a serious obstacle to the restoration of the State. For however he may have repented of his past treason, his long acting as one of the leading conspirators in bringing on rebellion, and his emfforts to ebitter the people against the government of their fathers, still his record remains, his past history will come up before Congress when the motion for admitting the State comes up. His present denial of notorious facts serve only to cast doubt upon his pretended repentance."

Again on the 31st. ult., he says:

"I know that the Government will do nothing to endorse Mr. Holden, and you should have the fact stated in all the papers, that are willing to state the truth. * * * * His election will do the State infinite damage, first, on account of his part in bringing about secession, and secondly, on account of his affiliations North.

E. W. Carpenter at Newbern, who has been the author of the telegrams puffing Holden, was formerly a bar tender in Milwaukie, was there guilty of some election fraud for which he had to leave; next associated with that humbug Charles H. Foster who tried to get into the U. S. Congress in 1861. * * * *

This Carpenter is now a Notary Public at Newbern, appointed by Mr. Holden. What you see as public opinion in the North is nearly all the manufacture of this fellow and a few others. The people of the North will not and do not prefer any man who was ever engaged in plunging the country into war. I have spoken with many influential men, and when they learn the true state of the case, they are surprised that sensible men would let themselves be imposed on by such stuff as Holden's electioneering puffers. * * *

Gov. Holden has an agent here, Dr. Powell, who is very busy around the Departments, saying that the issue is Holden and non-assumption of the war debt, or Worth and assumption of that debt. He says not a word about Holden and come in, or Worth and stay out, for he knows perfectly well that Congress is the party that is to say come in. It is therefore important that men should be sent to Congress, who possess force of mind and character. And it is all important that a man of Holden's antecedents and character should not be Governor."

The above may be relied on. The gentleman who makes the statement is in a position to know what he says, and he stands ready to substantiate what he says if required.

The Election--Rally! Rally!

The election for the State takes place next Thursday the 9th inst. It is one of the most important elections ever held in the State. The policy of Gov. Holden has been so dilatory and tedious, as to force upon the people the important matters involved in this election, to be determined in the short space of three weeks. By that policy the call of a Convention was delayed, forcing the elections and the Legislature upon the heels of Congress. There has been consequently too little time to enable the people to act with the deliberation necessary.

Let the people act promptly. Be sure to vote for none but good men whom you know can be relied upon. Vote for none but out and out Worth men—men committed to the liberal policy of President Johnson. The issue is an important one. It involves the future peace of the State and the prosperity of our people. Go to the polls and work for Jonathan Worth and his friends. Let every man take the oath who has heretofore failed to do so. We call upon the people to rebuke the narrow, hide-bound, illiberal policy of the "strait sect" party.

Shameful Misrepresentation.

The Standard continues to circulate the ridiculous and infamous falsehood, that Mr. Worth caused a large amount of old N. C. bonds belonging to the Sinking Fund to be sold and invested in new N. C. bonds. We have shown that the order was made by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund three months before Mr. Worth went into office, and yet the Standard persists.

Again, it repeats its slander and Dr. Powell, the Governor's agent at Washington has taken it up, "elect Mr. Holden and the State war debt will be repudiated, or elect Mr. Worth and it will be paid." The Standard's long, windy articles on this subject are perfectly ridiculous. Mr. Worth has distinctly stated his position, that since the government has demanded the repudiation of the State war debt as a condition of our re-admission into the Union, he considers the question settled, and any attempt to disturb it would be acting in bad faith to the government in which he could not be a party. This is Mr. Worth's position, and yet the Standard repeats its slanders.

Be on the Alert.

The friends of Jonathan Worth throughout the State, should look carefully to the composition of the Legislature. It is really more important to secure the election of the right men to the Legislature, than it is to defeat Gov. Holden. In some Counties candidates for the Legislature are disposed to secure their own election without regard to their preferences for Governor. The people should not allow this. Compel them to declare their preferences. Vote for no man who is not committed to one or the other candidates. Mr. Worth and Gov. Holden are both representatives of a principle, which is the only real issue in the canvass. Mr. Worth is committed to a liberal policy as against the policy of the "straitest sect" men, while Gov. Holden is the leader of the "straitest sect." The same principle is involved in the Congressional election. Col. Russ is the champion of the "straitest sect," on the other hand Josiah Turner, jr., is opposed to it and sustains President Johnson's policy.

Complimentary Ticket.

The Standard says that the Wake County Worth ticket is discourteous to the gentlemen named, because they have not been consulted. We think it is the highest compliment ever paid to any gentlemen in the County. There is no use to be mouthy about it, we intend to elect them. Hand them around. Nathan Ivey for the Senate, and T. Jeff Utley, P. A. Dunn and Jno. J. L. McCullers, for the Commons.

The ladies of Fayetteville have petitioned President Johnson for the release of Jefferson Davis.

The Congressional Elections.

In the first District we are not advised how matters stand. Messrs. Speed and Stubbs, we presume, are for Mr. Worth, and Messrs. Bond and Warren, are for Gov. Holden. The election of Dr. Speed or Mr. Stubbs we think pretty certain.

In the second District, we consider Mr. Clark's election certain. Judge Howard who is a strong man in the District, has been named by his friends in the Wilmington papers, but our impression is that he has not consented to run, and will be returned from Edgecombe and Wilson to the State Senate.

In the third Mr. Fuller, Holden candidate, will be beaten we judge.

In the fourth, the contest is with Col. Russ and Mr. Turner. Our friends consider now, Mr. Turner's election certain.

In the fifth, the contest is between Mr. Hanes, for Worth, and Hon. Bedford Brown, for Holden. Col. B. is an old stager and is playing shrewdly. We understand he does not go strongly for Gov. Holden. He says he will vote for Mr. Holden, but if Gov. Holden is not elected, there is no man he would prefer to Mr. Worth. Mr. Hanes ought to have it fully understood that he is the Holden candidate. The District will go largely for Mr. Worth, and ought to elect Mr. Hanes by a strong vote.

In the sixth, the District will go strongly for Worth, but there are four candidates. We think the chances are decidedly in favor of Dr. Ramsay.

In the seventh there are also four candidates. We have only heard from Burke and Buncombe, and our friends assure us that Worth will carry both of those Counties.

The Amnesty Oath.

Some persons have not yet taken the oath.—Those who have failed to do so, must do so at once if they desire to vote at the coming election. It is important that every voter in the State should cast his vote. We are all for the Union—all for the restoration—but in North Carolina as in Tennessee, we have "red string" men and "strait sect" men, who are illiberal towards their fellow-citizens—disposed to keep them under the ban of public opinion and of the government. They are ostracised for their former opinions—denounced because they followed their honest convictions, because they stood up for North Carolina and the South. They are as good Union men now as they are, yet they would disfranchise them. Let the people rebuke this spirit and put it down at the ballot box.

A Correction.

We hasten at the earliest moment, to correct a wrong impression which was made upon our own mind, and hence we made the same upon our readers. It appears that a gentleman of Wilmington wrote to Gov. Graham requesting him to run for Governor, at the same time requesting him to telegraph his determination to the editor of the Sentinel. The following despatch from Gov. Graham, as soon as he discovered our error fully explains the matter.

HILLSBORO, Nov. 2d.

To W. E. PELL:

My dispatch was addressed to F. D. Poisson, Wilmington, and sent to you for publication, as he requested that mode of reply. The operator mistook the address.

W. A. GRAHAM.

Wayne County.

We learn from several sources that Mr. Faircloth of Wayne, one of the members of the Convention from that County, who signed the petition to Gov. Holden to become a candidate, a few days ago, declared at Pikeville that he could not support the Governor. Other accounts are that he has denounced Gov. Holden. Now, all this could be understood; but on the back of this we learn, that Mr. Faircloth is a candidate for the Legislature, and that since he made the above declaration at Pikeville, he has ordered tickets and electioneering documents from the Standard office. The friends of Mr. Worth in Wayne, would do well to enquire into this.

Skies Bright.

The news we continue to get from all parts of the State, grows better and better. Mr. Worth's triumphant election, seems to be beyond question, if the information we get is not wholly incorrect. The violence of the Standard is doing good work for him. The Greensboro' Patriot, Salem Press, Charlotte Times, Fayetteville News, Wilmington Journal, Wilmington Dispatch and Goldsboro' News are decidedly for Mr. Worth. Hillsboro' Recorder, Winston Sentinel, Statesville American, we judge are not doubtful, though we believe have not expressed themselves so freely.

The Standard wished to know who wrote a certain article for the Sentinel some days ago. It was an impertinent question and we did not answer it. The editor alone writes the editorials of this paper and wrote the one in question. The Standard cannot say as much. Those long wordy articles of the Standard were certainly written by some one who has a perfect diarrhoea of words—words—words. Some people think that some of the candidates, aids, clerks &c., are lending a helping hand. Well, the boys need help.

Election Returns.

We shall be glad for our friends to send us the earliest news of the results of the election, for Governor, Congress and Legislature.

STATE LIBRARY.—We understand if our old friend Jonathan Worth is elected Governor, our good natured friend Maj. H. W. Husted will be allowed again to occupy the "old arm chair" in the State Library, at his convenience.

For the Sentinel.

Henry Clay.

The Governor in the last Standard is aggrieved by Mr. Worth for "dragging in" the name of Henry Clay—and indignantly inquires whether "the great principles of Henry Clay are to be discussed and decided in this canvass?" It seems so; for there is published in the same paper the correspondence between members of the Convention and his Excellency, bearing date Oct. 14th 1865, in which his Excellency declares that he holds "with Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay that the people are the source of all power, and alone entitled to rule." The example of "dragging in" great names, so being given by his Excellency, was it surprising that his opponent should not also do something of that sort? Is it very impertinent in Mr. Worth to imitate his "illustrious predecessor?"

By the way, Mr. Worth was always a disciple of Henry Clay—always believed in his principles. His Excellency has been three or four times both for and against him; as he has been both for and against every distinguished statesman, Gen. Jackson included. Is his Excellency for or against Henry Clay at this present time? And if so how will he be next year? We can place Jonathan Worth. He never changes. If you can put your finger on him now, it will stay on him.

Many years ago, in the freshness of his young heart, his Excellency, then passing by another name, "poured out his whole soul" in a grandiloquent eulogy on one whom he designated as one of "Nature's noblemen." Shortly thereafter this nobleman of nature was pronounced by his quondam eulogist, to have been guilty of "intrigue and profligacy, and political meanness and corruption," and to be "inflated with arrogance and a tyrant to his friends." The great Kentuckian has been alternately bepraised and bespattered in the same quarter—until in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and sixty five, in the eleventh month, and on the second day thereof, the same authority advises Jonathan Worth to "cease to invoke the great and glorious name of Henry Clay." How it may be on the second day of November, 1866, is somewhat uncertain, but Henry Clay and his principles will be either execrated or approved, one or the other, or both, if, however, provided, nevertheless, notwithstanding, &c. Same as to General Jackson. In fact, Saul and all the prophets would be puzzled to foretel or foresee. Circumstances alter cases.

It would not take either Saul or Solomon to know that if Jonathan Worth had once poured out his whole soul in praise of Henry Clay he would be pouring it out still—and all the time.—If in 1842 he had pronounced him "one of nature's noblemen," and in 1865 could "invoke the great and glorious name of Henry Clay," there could not have been a single day in those intervening twenty-three years, when he would stultify himself by stereotyped charges of "Bargain, corruption and Intrigue." Such a man is not our straight-forward, honest and gloriously consistent candidate. He never turned his back on his friends or foes. What he says he means—and he sticks to it through thick and thin. And when he says the repudiation of the war debt is "now a dead issue" with him and with all, he means precisely that thing; and what is more, those who know him well, have no doubt of his present intentions—and are perfectly sure that his intentions will be honestly carried out. It is worse than whistling jigs to a mile stone, to suspect that honest, and determined man, of ever being false to his engagements or false to his principles, or false to his friends. He is no trickster. He could not be if he should try; and he would not try, for all the offices in the gift of the people.

The Standard adds "Mr. Worth says he has been a life-long Henry Clay Union man. So he has—this is the sad part of the story." Has he indeed been a life long Union man? What then becomes of that charge against him for practicing disunion, by voting for the postponement of Mr. Turners resolutions? Why, sir, the ink is not yet dry, in which he is charged by you with disunion and treason. This sudden spasmodical conversion is too bad. Where is the seat of your troubles? Is it behind, where it should be? "So he has" quothe. Then that was all a "cunning plot," yesterday when you attempted to soil the garments of that stern old patriot with treason. Why did you do that—or allow those innocent young men to behave so badly? It is really too bad. But truth will out sometimes, unless people are very careful. "Truth crushed to earth" &c., as the poet saith. Moreover, "this is the sad part of the story." Verily is it. The inflexibility of the old wheel horse is a standing rebuke to people of easy virtue. It is very sad to think that "he has been a life-long Henry Clay, Union man." He ought to have snuffed the popular breeze. He ought by all means to have turned his olfactories to the North or the South, as the breeze might blow. Oh, if Jonathan Worth had only printed a book! he might be filled "with sorrow and sadness."

Mr. Worth our Next Governor.

Mr. Editor:—I congratulate you on the influence of the Sentinel in North Carolina. The people wherever I go speak of it as containing the truth.

The prospects of that noble old North Carolinian Jonathan Worth, indicate his election by an overwhelming vote. I think I see him now as Governor of the State. And when he goes in, every laboring man in the State may know that no part of his taxes will go otherwise than in the most rigid public economy.

His election will place the Administration of President Johnson on a solid basis in North Carolina. The effort to misrepresent his course when he was fighting against the secession whirlwind with Turner and others in May 1861, meets with universal contempt, ridicule and derision in our section. If he wanted to break up the Government why upon earth did he go against the secession Convention of May 1861.

There is not a reading man in the State from Currituck to Cherokee but what knows that Mr. Worth stood out against secession until he was talked of all over the State. After W. W. Holden had in his card announcing himself as a candidate, pledged himself to secede if elected, Mr. Worth was still battling away.

But sir, the decree has gone forth. Jonathan Worth will be the next Governor of our State.

I have known him long and well. He is a firm man, in his opinions and principles. His talents are second to no man in North Carolina. Kind in heart, direct in purpose, unselfish and honest, equal to any man I ever saw. Mr. Worth will give our State a high position amid the other States of the Union. A FARMER.

To the Friends of Hon. A. H. Arrington in the Fourth District.

There is a report in circulation in some parts of the District, that Hon. A. H. Arrington is the "Holden Candidate"—was solicited to run for Congress by Gov. Holden—and has declared himself in favor of Gov. H.'s election. These reports are all false. Mr. Arrington steadily adheres to the purpose expressed in his card not to canvass the District—has taken no part in the Gubernatorial contest—and will not do so.

Mr. Arrington's friends are warned against the unjust and unfair charges that have been circulated to his prejudice. Let them stand by him in this contest as they have done heretofore—and he will be triumphantly elected. He has no paper to advocate his election and to reply to the misrepresentations, circulated against him. He relies upon those who have heretofore sustained him in every emergency, to rally to his support now, and his election will be beyond a doubt.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:--I advise all dyspeptics to read the Standard, for the rich, rare, racy articles that grace the columns of that paper, will give them more relief than all the anti dyspeptic pills in the universe. Why sir, were you to see me poring over the Standard, you would take me for the very incarnation of "mirth that wrinkled care derides and laughter, holding both his sides."--But excess in all things is hurtful. This truth is illustrated by the leader of yesterday's Standard, headed "News from all Sections," which over seasoned with the mirthful and ludicrous, had almost caused my risibilities to go into convulsions. Where in the thunder, I exclaimed, after somewhat recovering, did the young Joses of the Standard get the idea of such pompous demonstrations under apprehensions of a disastrous defeat at the approaching election. We know that inanimate nature has furnished to genius some of its most happy conceptions, and that man does not disdain to receive, at times, lessons of instruction from the animal kingdom.--When a General finds himself confronted by an enemy of vastly superior numbers, he immediately commences manœuvering by changing his men from one position to another, and keeping up a tremendous rattling of arms and blowing of trumpets, in order to magnify his strength and frighten his adversary. In all of this, he but imitates the little bull when cornered by the old one. The little fellow conscious of his weakness, but thinking to scare his antagonist, goes to pawing the earth, and filling the air with dirt and vociferous sounds. But let a pass be made--we hear nothing but a grunt and all is over. Now the Standard surveying the mighty hosts who are marshalling themselves under the banner of that stern old patriot Jonathan Worth, commences incontinently blowing the fife, beating the drum and sounding the trumpet, or in other words, imitating the tactics of the little bull when confronted by the old one. Nor are those tactics employed for the first time by that paper. In glancing over the Standard of 1864, I find the following sentence in reference to the then pending election in this County.

"Let every other part of the county do as well, and the ticket will be elected by an average majority of not less than one thousand."--Standard July 20, 1864. How stood the vote in fact? Gov. Vance beat the then editor of the Standard more than two hundred votes in the county. So much for that flourish of trumpets.

Again I, quote from the Standard.

"We appeal to our friends to see that every precinct is well supplied with tickets for the true Conservative candidates. We appeal to them also to see to it that active and determined friends are present at every precinct, to encourage and protect the timid to confirm the wavering, to convey the old and infirm men to the polls, and to contradict and expose the falsehoods which will be in circulation on the day of election. Do this, and a decisive victory will crown the conservative cause.--Standard July 13, 1864.

Well, "a decisive victory" did crown the Conservative cause, and yet Gov. (then Mr.) Holden received only about 14,000 votes out of some 60,000 polled.

Again, "The people are with us, as the election on the 4th of next month will show."--Standard, July 6, '64.

The election showed you, Mr. Standard, that there were some 35,000 votes against you, and but some 14,000 in favor of you. I am no prophet or the son of a prophet, but from all the lights and information before me, I look forward at the approaching election for as large a majority in favor of Jonathan Worth, "the Quaker's son," as Gov. Vance received last year.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I will say to the Joses of the Standard, play the fife, beat the drum, sound the trumpet, whistle, do any thing to keep their courage up, even to the writing of such windy articles as the leader of yesterday's Standard. No harm is done thereby. The public very readily indulges such innocent amusement, seeing that the time approacheth, when it will be necessary for them to hang their harps upon the willows, put on habiliments of mourning, and lament their politically fallen friend and chieftain.

VINDICATOR.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, Nov 2, 1865.

To the Editor of the Sentinel: The author of a communication, signed "Vindicator," in the Sentinel of this morning, seems to think he has convicted me of falsehood, or prevarication, at least.

I had heard that some persons were objecting to me, on the ground that I was a warm supporter of the "test oath," as it was called, in the Convention of 1861. In a Card, "to the voters of Wake county," I said this charge was untrue, and proceeded to state the facts, as they occurred at the time. I said:

"When the ordinance came up for consideration, it was violently opposed; many members objecting to have the oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States administered to them, because it looked like a suspicion of their loyalty; and that they would regard the imposition of such an oath, as an act of oppression and despotism. Mr. Graham moved to postpone indefinitely. I rose and stated, that I discovered the passing of the ordinance, and the imposition of the oath, would create bad feeling, and would be regarded by many members of the Convention, as an act of cruelty and oppression --that such being the case, it would do more harm than good--and that I would not vote to force this oath, on members, who were unwilling to take it. And I then gave notice, that if the motion to postpone indefinitely did not prevail, I would move to strike out the first, or "test oath" clause, so as to leave nothing in the ordinance, but the anti-sedition clause. My recollection is that I requested Mr. Graham to withdraw the motion to indefinitely postpone, that I might make the motion then, to strike out the first clause or section alluded to. Mr. Graham declined to withdraw his motion, stating that his object was, to finally dispose of the whole ordinance."

The Standard, in alluding to this matter, a day or two afterwards, said:

"Mr. Rayner acted a frank and manly part, in relation to the test oath feature, by announcing his opposition to it, on reflection, and his willingness to strike it out."

This article from the Standard published at that time in 1861, proves and sustains my statement, that I was in favor of striking out the "test oath" provision. So far as the fact is concerned, my statement is confirmed by the public notice taken of it at the time. The error of the Standard consisted in the intimation, that I had changed my opinion upon reflection. It was to correct that intimation, that I addressed to the Standard the note of December 14th, 1861. There is no discrepancy or inconsistency, between my note to the Standard of December 14th, 1861, and my short address "to the voters of Wake County" --an extract from which is given in this communication.

The issue before the public was this. I had been charged with being a warm supporter of the "test oath." I said the charge was untrue. And I have proven my assertion to be true--first by my vote, as recorded in the journal, to lay on the table; and secondly, by the comments of the Standard published at that time.

Why did not Vindicator go on to give the next following sentence of my letter in the Standard of Dec 14, 1861. If he had, he would have saved me the trouble of writing this letter. It is as follows:

"I admitted from the temper and spirit exhibited in the Convention by the opponents of the measure, it was evident the execution of the ordinance would meet with great resistance, that it would produce strife and division among our people, and if so, would be the cause of mischief instead of good. That sooner than run the hazard of these evils, I was willing to give up that portion of the ordinance relating to the oath of allegiance--a "test oath," I denied that it was throughout."

I repeat again, this thing called a "test oath" was nothing in the world but a provision, requiring the members of the Convention and those holding office under the State, to take an oath to support the constitution of the Confederate States. The legislature did this very thing, at its next or succeeding session by a unanimous vote, the yeas and nays not being called, and yet no one has ever heard of the members of the Legislature being arraigned for that vote.

Yours respectfully,

K. RAYNER.

MR. EDITOR:--I send you the following running commentary and glossary upon an article in yesterday's Standard headed "A Desperate Shift."

"A friend has handed us a handbill purporting to put forth a Worth ticket in this County. [Read, Worthy ticket.] The whole thing shows desperation. [Read, the whole thing shows that the Worth men are desperately in earnest as to electing their ticket.] We are sure that no persons regret it more than the gentlemen, [Cincinnatus regretted leaving his plough, but obeyed his countrymen's call,] whose names are thus discourteously brought before the public. [Read courteously] Discourteous, [courteously] because they are pledged to Jonathan Worth, for Governor [all right,] and against the whole of the candidates now out for the Legislature, [all right,] and put upon a platform also [by the side of President Johnson and "the Quaker's son",] whereas the handbill itself says 'they have not been consulted nor asked to be candidates.' [No, for the reason the Worth men believe that office should seek the man, and not the man the office.] There are four quiet farmers, [all right,] intelligent, retired gentlemen [true as Gospel,] handbilled all over town [and country too] pledged to certain persons and set upon a platform without once being consulted, [for the reason the people have entire confidence in their patriotism and integrity.] Was such a movement ever made in Wake County before? [Is it ever too late to reform vicious practices?] Were any politicians ever driven to such a desperate shift before? [Yes, they have been driven to nominate themselves for the highest and most responsible offices in the State.] Their every action shows that they are already writhing [read, smiling] under the terrible defeat that awaits them [read, them, their enemies,] on Thursday next. They have tried and tried to get out a ticket, and this is their last brilliant effort, [yes, four quiet farmers, intelligent, retired gentlemen.] Not having consulted any of the gentlemen named, it is no ticket at all. [Perhaps you will believe differently after next Thursday.] They are not running. [No, but the people are running for them, and intend to head you off, Mr. Standard.] The whole is a desperate thing [to our cause] and will recoil on the heads of the authors [If so, there will be a multitude of heads to receive it.] We only regret that Mr. Ivey and others have been thus discourteously [read, courteously] treated."

Garbled Extracts etc.

It is easy enough, perhaps, very becoming in the courtly young gentlemen who ostensibly conduct the Court Journal, to talk about scavengers and garbled extracts from newspapers issued during times of high political excitement. Will they please to state which of the extracts published in "Facts for the people," or in Mr. Turner's Speech are garbled? If there is one of them which does not speak the truth, will our young friends put their finger on that one, and say it is garbled? This would be much more satisfactory to the people, whom they wish to control, and whose votes they are asking, than wholesale denunciations. They cannot do it.--These beautiful extracts were not garbled, but carefully copied from the editorials of the Standard, at the dates severally affixed. Come out young gentlemen, confess the corn. Is it a "stereotyped lie" when a reader of the Standard asserts that Mr. Holden was once, and long a secessionist? That gentleman hereby says that he "had always held that the States had a right to secede for cause." He says so in his issue of Oct. 30, 1861.

Will these interesting youths turn to the bound file of that date, and see about it? And will they then say how they find it? Is that a garbled extract? And will they after this examination report that whoever charges Gov. Holden with ever having been a secessionist utters what is "infamously false?" Come up to the bull-ring. No dodging under generalities. Yea, or nay. Give us your answer specifically. Gov. Holden certainly declares what he had always been. Is it becoming in the boys to pronounce what he says, "infamously false?" Is what he says a "stereotyped lie." Be ashamed, young gentleman! But do make the search, and inform an anxious people what is the result. Tell them "who is responsible for the severance of a happy brotherhood?" Will you answer the question, as your principal did on May 11th 1865? To wit: "Bad men--designing men--small men--ambitious men desirous of rule!" Jonathan Worth or who? If he is not called Jonathan--please give the people his baptismal name and they will guess the rest. They are interested in knowing who is that "bad man, designing man, small man, ambitious man so desirous to rule." Q.

To the Voters of Wake County.

At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this County for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them, ought to be repealed. He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with other indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence, I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully yours,
71-tde. B. F. MOORE.

FOR CONGRESS.
COL. JAMES R. LOVE.

WE are authorized to announce Col. JAMES R. LOVE of Jackson County, as a Conservative--National Union Candidate for a seat in the House of Representives of the United States, in the 7th, Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancy, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay.
Oct. 25 1865.

TO THE VOTERS

Of the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnson and Nash:

FELLOW CITIZENS:--I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election, precludes the possibility of a canvass. Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress, cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are vain and unnecessary. There is one question however, which seems to be agitating to some extent the minds of the people both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored fellow citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests--to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights--and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights both of person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
A. H. ARRINGTON.

One hundred acres of the latter is well drained and in a fine state of cultivation. This Farm is situated on the Raleigh and Louisburg Road, 18 miles from the former and 13 from the latter place. Purchasers seldom meet with such inducements as are here offered. Pine timber can be delivered on the R. & G. R. R. 7 miles from the premises. Also the crop of Corn and Fodder, Horses, Mules, Hogs and Cattle, consisting of Beeves, Milch Cows, and Work Oxen. Dump and Ox Carts, Wagons and other Agricultural implements too tedious to mention. Terms made known on the day of sale.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,		$220,000
" "	Allowed Losses,	10,000
" "	Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SELBY, Pres't.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro,' N. C., and circulars will be sent.
